A T T O R N E Y S A T L A W

Bormann, Myerchin, Espeseth & Edison, LLP, a general practice law firm in Bismarck, North Dakota, is seeking an associate attorney to practice in the areas of civil litigation, probate, and estate planning. The ideal candidate should have two years of experience in litigation, excellent writing skills, and the ability to work in a collaborative environment. Graduating law students are also encouraged to apply.

The firm offers a competitive salary and benefits package together with a work environment that balances work, family, and community service. Interested candidates should submit a letter of interest, resume, and writing sample to Chris Edison, Partner, at chris.edison@bmellp.com. This position will be open until filled. All inquiries will be maintained in strict confidence.

Bormann, Myerchin, Espeseth & Edison, LLP was originally formed as Bormann Law Office in 1998 by its founding partner, Clark Bormann. The partners in the firm have over 120 years of combined legal experience representing clients in a diverse practice that includes: criminal law, wills and estate planning, probate, bankruptcy, commercial litigation, civil litigation, and real estate law. The firm is small enough to give individualized service and large enough to take on complex disputes. For more information, visit www.bmellp.com.
